WHAT IS A HEALTH FSA AND WHAT DOES IT COVER?

What is it? Flexible Spending Accounts (FSAs) are employee-funded accounts that provide tax-free reimbursement for qualifying expenses. The IRS defines qualifying expenses and sets the maximum dollar amount you can contribute to your Health FSA account each year.

What does it cover?

- *Copays, coinsurance, deductibles
- *First Aid items (bandages, medical kits)
- *Tampons, Pads & more (heat wraps, creams)
- *Over-the-counter meds (pain, allergy, ointments and more)
- *Virus preparedness (COVID-19 home test, thermometers, pulse oximeters)
- *Extra eyeglasses, contacts and contact lens solution

CAN I ENROLL?

You are not eligible for a Health FSA if you or your spouse are contributing to a Health Savings Account (HSA). However, you can pair a Limited FSA with a Health Savings Account. See "Limited FSA Fact Sheet" for more information.

WHAT ARE THE MAXIMUM BENEFITS THAT I MAY ELECT TO CONTRIBUTE?

For your Health FSA account

HEALTH FSA CARRYOVER

[Grace Period] For your Health FSA, there is a 2-1/2 month extension to incur expenses, meaning any monies left over from the current plan year can be used for expenses incurred through March 15th of next year. If you do not incur eligible expenses to use the full amount, you will forfeit the balance. Per IRS rules, there is no carryover feature for a Dependent Care FSA.
