

South Sound Christian Schools Proposal:

Join us to provide your comments about the “South Sound Christian Schools” Land Use Designation Change proposal. The Tacoma Planning Commission is reviewing three community proposals during the 2022 amendment process.

The proposed Land Use Designation Change would allow for the applicant, at a future time, to develop one of 8 small parcels near the existing South Tacoma Baptist School with low intensity multi-family.

Additionally, a request for redesignation of a site to General Commercial to allow small office/retail use is also part of this quest.

The City conducts an annual amendment process to the One Tacoma Comprehensive Land Use Plan and Regulatory Zoning Map to keep the plan and city zoning up-to-date and working for all Tacoma residents.
