A new chapter is to be added to the Tacoma Municipal Code, providing as follows:

PART ONE

FINDINGS

1. The people of the City of Tacoma hereby adopt this citizen initiative for the purpose of protecting families and tenants and reducing homelessness. This measure is intended to:
 - a. require landlords to comply with tenant protection laws before raising rent or evicting a tenant;
 - b. prohibit unfair or excessive fees;
 - c. require landlords to provide notice of rent increases and pay relocation assistance when significant rent increases require tenants to relocate;
 - d. prohibit certain student/school-year evictions and cold-weather evictions; and
 - e. provide penalties and other enforcement mechanisms.
2. This measure is designed to protect families, promote community, stabilize the rental market, and reduce homelessness. It is Tacoma's intent to continue its long-term commitment to maintain vibrant and diverse neighborhoods within the City. The regulations contained in this initiative balance the needs of the landlord, tenant, and Tacoma while creating a partnership to ensure safe, healthy, and thriving rental housing in Tacoma. Providing housing for Tacoma residents directly impacts quality of life at the most basic level, and therefore requires regulations to ensure that it is equitably undertaken.

PART TWO

ADOPTING THE LANDLORD FAIRNESS CODE

Section 2. Adopting Landlord Fairness Code. Through this initiative, the people of the City of Tacoma adopt the following Landlord Fairness Code to protect tenants in our City, as further outlined in this initiative:

1. Landlords must comply with tenant protection laws before raising rent or evicting a tenant.
 2. Landlords must not charge unfair or excessive fees.
 3. Landlords must give advanced notice of rent increases and pay relocation assistance when significant rent increases require tenants to relocate.
 4. Landlords are prohibited from carrying out student/school-year evictions and cold-weather evictions.
 5. It shall be a defense to eviction for a landlord to be in violation of the Landlord Fairness Code as set forth herein.

Section 3. Landlords must comply with tenant protection laws. Landlords must comply with all tenant protection laws. Landlords in violation of such laws may not increase rent or evict a tenant, as provided in this section.

2. A landlord shall be prohibited from increasing a tenant's rent if:
 - a. the landlord is determined to be in violation of tenant protection laws related to health and safety, according to the procedures detailed in TMC 20.1.050; or
 - b. the dwelling unit has defective conditions making the dwelling unit uninhabitable, if a request for repairs to the dwelling unit has not been resolved, or the landlord is otherwise in violation of RCW 59.18.060, as it exists or may be amended. If the tenant believes the dwelling unit has defective conditions making the unit uninhabitable or in violation of RCW 59.18.060, the tenant shall notify the landlord in writing as required by RCW 59.18.070, specifying the premises involved; the owner's name, if known; and the nature of the defective condition before the effective date listed in the notice of rent increase. Once such notice of defective condition is provided, the landlord must remedy the defective condition and provide notice of such remedy to the tenant and the City before rent may be increased.
3. It shall be a defense against eviction that the landlord is, at time of eviction, in violation of tenant protection laws related to health and safety, pursuant to the procedures set forth in paragraph 2 of this section.

Section 4. Landlords must not charge unfair or excessive fees. Landlords are prohibited from charging tenants "unfair or excessive fees." As used in this section, "unfair or excessive fees" means any of the following:

- c. A pet damage deposit exceeding 25% of one month's rent or where the landlord may retain any part of the pet deposit exceeding the actual costs of repairing the pet damage.
- c. Move-in fees that in total exceed the first month's rent. If a tenant pays a portion of rent and the remainder is covered by a subsidy, "first month's rent" includes both the tenant's payment and subsidy.
- d. Any fee or charge for late payment of rent exceeding $10.00 per month or that are paid or charged after the end of the tenancy, except as required by State or Federal law.

Any rental agreement shall be deemed void to the extent it requires payment of fees prohibited by this section. This section shall not apply to or limit decisions, orders, and rulings of courts of competent jurisdiction.

A second reminder notice must be provided between 120 and 90 days before the rent increase is to take effect.
