

PAID LEAVE:

Feel Well, Work Well

Starting in February 2016, workers in Tacoma can earn up to 24 hours of paid time off each year.

This leave can be used for temporary time off of work when a worker or their immediate family member has health or safety needs. Other uses include work or school closures ordered by public officials or for bereavement.

