BEFORE THE BOARD OF ETHICS
FOR THE CITY OF TACOMA

In the Matter of the Complaint Against Council Member Ryan Mello

FINDINGS, CONCLUSIONS AND ORDER OF DISMISSAL OF BOARD OF ETHICS

Board of Ethics Complaint No. 2016-001

I. PROCEDURAL HISTORY

1.1. On January 4, 2016 the City Clerk’s Office received complaint filed by Robert Hill alleging a violation of the City's Code of Ethics by Council Member Ryan Mello occurred when he contacted the Chief of Police directly.

1.2. The complaint is attached as Exhibit A.

1.3. The matter was referred to the Board of Ethics as is required by the City’s Code of Ethics (Tacoma Municipal Code 1.46.040 B) and was assigned Board of Ethics Complaint No. 2016-001.

1.4. Pursuant to the Administrative Procedures of the Board of Ethics, initial review of Complaint No. 2016-001, for the purpose of determining the legal sufficiency of the complaint, was conducted by the Deputy City Attorney assigned as legal advisor to the Board.

1.5. It was the initial opinion of the Deputy City Attorney that Complaint No. 2016-001 alleged facts which, even if true, would not constitute a violation of the Code of Ethics by Councilmember Mello and that dismissal of Complaint No. 2016-001 was appropriate pursuant to the Code of Ethics (Tacoma Municipal Code 1.46.045 F (2)(a)(i)).

1.6. As directed by the Administrative Procedures of the Board of Ethics, the Deputy City Attorney’s initial opinion, together with Complaint No. 2016-001 was provided to the members of the Board of Ethics for review.
1.7. Due to vacancies on the Board of Ethics, three participating Members of the Board of Ethics constituted a quorum of the Board and unanimously concurred with the initial opinion of the Deputy City Attorney that Complaint No. 2016-001 alleged facts which, even if true, would not constitute a violation of the Code of Ethics and that dismissal of Complaint 2016-001 was appropriate.

II. FINDINGS OF FACT

2.1. For purposes this Order, the Board accepts the allegations of fact contained in Ethics Complaint No. 2016-01 as true; specifically:

2.1.1 On November 8, 2011, prior to the beginning of a City Council meeting, Councilmember Mello initiated direct, in person contact with City of Tacoma Chief of Police Ramsdell.

2.1.2 The purpose of Councilmember Mello’s contact with Chief Ramsdell was due to the fact that Councilmember Mello felt nervous after a conversation with Complainant Robert Hill.

2.1.3 The version of the Tacoma City Charter in effect at the time of Councilmember Mello’s contact with Chief Ramsdell stated in Section 3.2:

The Manager shall be responsible to the Council for the administration of all units of the City government under his jurisdiction. Except for the purpose of inquiry, the Council and its members shall deal with administrative officers and employees under jurisdiction of the Manager solely through the Manager.

III. CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

3.1 Complaint No. 2016-001 does not present any facts, which, even if true, would constitute a violation by Councilmember Mello of any provision of the City of Tacoma Code of Ethics, therefore Complaint No. 2016-001 is dismissed pursuant to 1.46.045 F (2)(a)(i).

3.1.1 To the extent Complaint No. 2016-001 alleges a violation of the Charter of the City of Tacoma by Councilmember Mello, the Board of Ethics does not have jurisdiction over such allegations.
IV. ORDER

Based on the foregoing, Complaint No. 2016-001 is hereby DISMISSED.

Dated this 24th day of April, 2016.

COUNT ONE

On Tuesday, November Eighth, A.D. 2011, councilmember Ryan Mello violated section 3.2 of the city charter by:

having prohibited contact with Donald Ramsdell, police chief, a subordinate of the city manager.

1) As of November Eighth, 2011, Section 3.2 of the then-operative (2004) city charter states, partially:

"The Manager shall be responsible to the Council for the administration of all units of the city government under his jurisdiction. Except for the purpose of inquiry, the Council and its members shall deal with administrative officers and employees under jurisdiction of the Manager solely through the Manager.

2) In a police report numbered "11-312,0878" Mello states that on November Eighth, 2011, before the beginning of a council meeting, he contacted Ramsdell because he felt nervous after having a brief conversation with Hill.

3) In a deposition in a federal court case against Mello brought by Hill, numbered "14-cv-5589", Mello states similarly.

4) Mello was not reporting that Hill had allegedly threatened him.

5) Mello failed to follow the charter and make contact with the city manager or the mayor or both.

6) Mello failed to call 9-1-1, operated by South Sound 9-1-1 (then operating as "L.E.S.A.")

7) As a result of this contact, Hill was contacted by Ramsdell and other police officers, was caused to be detained for at least three hours, missed previously scheduled election night parties, and was involved in an incident at the party's venue which would not have happened had Hill been on time; and Hill ultimately suffered damages of 486 days in jail based on a criminal proceeding brought based on the incident which would not have happened had Hill not been late to the venue, i.e. six o'clock because of Mello's wrong act(s). Hill was never charged with a crime based on Ramdell's arrest at city hall.

8) A copy of the police report and deposition transcript are available upon request.
