

Employee Complaints

Personnel Rule 1.24.270 Civil Service Board - Powers and Duties paragraph B-2 provides the Board with the authority to investigate any or all matters relating to conditions of employment in the service of the City, either in response to employee complaints or on its own initiative. A complaint shall be a claim or charge of misunderstanding, difference in interpretation or violation of a condition of employment and does not include matters covered under the definition of an appeal as outlined in Personnel Rule 1.24.061.

The policy of the City of Tacoma, hence the Civil Service Board, regarding Employee Complaints is found in Personnel Rule 1.24.820. According to this rule, employee complaints will be adjusted promptly and fairly. The City will make every attempt to resolve Complaints first within the department at the lowest level possible and employees are expected to initially discuss any complaint with their immediate supervisor. In the event the supervisor's formal answer is not satisfactory, the employee may move the complaint forward following the steps and timelines specified in Personnel Rule 1.24.820. Briefly, the process is summarized as follows below; however, it is important that employees using the complaint process refer to and follow the steps outlined in the rule.

1. Employee follows up on the initial discussion with the supervisor in writing with the supervisor being required in turn to respond in writing.
2. If the employee is still not satisfied with the response, the employee will then forward it to the head of the division or department who is then required to respond in writing.
3. If satisfaction is still not achieved, the complaint may then be presented to the Civil Service Board by forwarding the complaint, along with copies of the correspondence with department officials, to the Human Resources Director.
4. The Human Resources Director will then file a report with the Civil Service Coordinator who will then place the matter on the Board's agenda for consideration. The Board will determine whether to hear the complaint and the Coordinator will set a time and place for the hearing. General Procedures for the Civil Service Board hearing are outlined in Personnel Rule 1.24.820.
