

Study Session
Human Rights Commission
10/15/2020

The Meeting is gaveled in

*Kristi Lynett, Sustainability Officer is presenting on climate change

*Andreta Armstrong asks what Ms. Lynett wants the Commissioners to do.

Kristin Lynett is asking the Commissioners to participate to share their stories.

Commissioner Ratcliffe wants to know when the Commissioners will receive the data that Ms. Lynett is collecting.

Ms. Lynett says that they will have a summary of the information in January.

Commissioner Ratcliffe notes that he would like Ms. Lynett to come back and share the information.

Commissioner Lemons inquiries what tools they are using for their equity lens.

Ms. Lynett notes that they are using a variety of different tools at their disposal.

Commissioner Oswal asks what are some of the specific strategies that they are using to get input from underrepresented youth.

Ms. Lynett notes they are in touch with youth ambassadors and the mayor's commission. She is always looking for new ways of reaching the youth.

Business Meeting
10/15/2020

Commissioners Present: Maya Ewings, Amanda Westbroke, Andre Jimenez, Al Ratcliffe, Norman Brick, Michealea Lemons, Julie Tran, Keshreeyaji Oswal, Taniesha Lyons, C. Ivan Johnson

The business meeting minutes are approved.

*Commissioner Lemons starts with introductions

* The Commissioners start to introduce themselves.

Commissioner Nobles gives a formal introduction on the work of the human rights commission.

Commissioner Ratcliffe introduces himself.

Commissioner Lyons introduces herself.

Commissioner Tran is introducing herself.

Staff introduces themselves.

-Commissioner Lemons – Racial Justice and Advocacy Committee, Housing Justice Task Force, Advocacy and Policy Committee , Education and Outreach Committeeand also a task force.

Commissioner Tran speaks about the Policy and Advocacy Committee

Commissioner Lemons gives an overview on the Education and Outreach committee and the Race and Justice Equity Committee.

Andreta Armstrong gives an update on the status of the Civil Rights Investigators