3. Chair's Report

5:07 pm (00:49)

Chair Kelly

Chair Kelly and Amy McBride will be presenting to the Economic Development Committee on November 10.

The next regular meeting of the Commission on December 14 will be shortened to allow for a non-business holiday gathering following the meeting.

Commissioners watched a short video created by ArtsWA in celebration of the National Endowment for the Arts' 50th anniversary.

4. Action Items

A. Portable Works Purchase

5:14 pm (07:42)

The Arts Program received 1,141 submissions from 213 artists. The panel reviewed 113 pieces from 60 artists in the second round. The panel recommended purchase of 32 pieces of artwork from the following artists: Juan Alonso-Rodriguez, Zack Bent, Gala Bent, Buddy Bunting, Romson Bustillo, MalPina Chan, Bill Colby, Neeka (Lloyd) Cook, Peter de Lory, Lynn Di Nino, Karen Doten, Jennifer Frohwerk, Randi Ganulin, Sarah Gilbert, Julia Haack, Claire B. Jones, Eunice Kim, Fred Lisaius, Hugo Ludeña, Jeremy Mangan, Kelda Martensen, Chandler O'Leary, Marvin Oliver, Mary Randlett, Elise Richman, Samuella Samaniego, Samantha Scherer, Preston Singletary, Jessica Spring, and Susan Zoccola.

The budget for total purchases was increased from $20,000 to $41,000. The panel included Janae Huber, Margaret Bullock, Zoe Donnell, Paul Throne, Tanisha Jumper, Kala Dralle, Julie Stoltman, and Lauren Hoogkamer.

Ms. McBride asked for a motion to "approve the slate of purchases as presented"

Chair Kelly stated "we should entertain a motion to accept Mike Sweney as Chair and Rachel Cardwell as Vice Chair, based on the majority vote."

There was a motion: "I would like to make that recommendation."

Motion: Scott Campbell
 Second: Halley Knigge
 Motion: Carried

5. Discussion/Updates

A. Tacoma Arts Month Recap

5:35 pm (28:10)

Commissioners gave suggestions for the Tacoma Studio Tour including asking Studio Tour artists to encourage visitors to participate in the #TacomaArts promotion, offering social media training for Studio Tour artists, correcting the itinerary function of the online Studio Tour map to either all numerical or all alphabetical ordering, and pursuing television publicity. It was observed that many people seemed to have learned about the tour via word of mouth and that the passport was very popular. There was an average of 124 visitors per studio.

Commissioners drew five names at random from people who had submitted completed Studio Tour passports. The drawing winners are: Cheryl Ann Bell, Susan Johnson, Kelly Stave, Jim Bilnoski, and Amy Goldberg.

The #TacomaArts promotion on social media will continue through November 15.

B. Art Plan Updates

5:47 pm (40:55)

3 Square Blocks has conducted their preliminary research, focus group meetings, and collection of online feedback. They will present to the Economic Development Committee on November 10.

The Commission will work through the 5-year Art Plan at their annual retreat in early 2016.

C. Public Art Updates

5:50 pm (43:45)

Lincoln District Revitalization – Horatio Law was selected for the project. His contract will go before Council on November 17. He will visit Tacoma on November 18 & 19 to begin work.

Bay Terrace/Tacoma Housing Authority – Christopher Jordan and Kenji Stoll have presented an initial proposal for the site.

Prairie Line Trail Spur – Susan Zoccola is working on a proposal for the project.

Metro Parks Tacoma – The call to artists for two projects at the Point Defiance Aquarium closes on November 23. Adam Kuby was hired by the Metro Parks architect to do design-integrated work for the waterfront in Point Defiance.

Thea Foss Waterway Esplanade – Ed Kroupa's artwork has been installed and was dedicated on October 15.

South Tacoma – There will be an upcoming joint call with Metro Parks for a public art project for Oak Tree Park and the Water Flume Line Trail. The Arts Program will manage a gateway public art project on South Tacoma Way, funded by a State Farm grant.

Water Forest – Museum of Glass is trying to set up a meeting with Howard Ben Tre.

Rebecca Solverson attended the annual Northwest Public Art Conference meeting.

Traffic Box Wrap Project – Wrap installation is underway.

Recommendations for panelists who reside or work in South Tacoma are needed for the upcoming South Tacoma public art projects.

Sound Transit D to M – The City purchased the land that the gateway artwork will be sited on and will be working on landscaping for the area. The City’s Neighborhood and Community Services department is working to address issues of homelessness in the area. James Sinding’s adjacent public art project is in the works.

Commissioners discussed projects and asked clarifying questions.
