MUNICIPAL ART PROGRAM

Public Art projects

- “Green Flash” – Elizabeth Conner is the design team artist for Pacific Avenue Streetscape. Working with AHBL Architects she developed a concept that highlights the green nature of this extensive transformation of downtown Tacoma’s main street. Permanent green tile and sculptures were installed in the rain gardens, creating connections from 7th to 17th. Six additional large-scale spheres will also be installed along the sidewalks in 2014. Elizabeth is also the design team artist and liaison with the Tacoma Art Museum and Olson Kundig Architects as we partner on the redevelopment of the Tacoma Art Museum plaza and adjacent City rights of way. Funded through an award of an “Our Town” grant from the National Endowment for the Arts, written by Arts Administrator, Amy McBride.

- Human Rights Legacy – Community dedication of the three contemplative seating benches by Paul Rucker

- Tacoma Gateway (on contract with Sound Transit) – Conducted research and community open houses for the creation of a large-scale public art piece at S. 25th and Pacific Avenue by artist team Sean Orlando and David Schulman

- Public Art: In Depth (PA:ID) – Public art training program for 23 Tacoma artists including legal and engineering consultations. Artists competed for 8 public projects in 2012; work on the projects continued through 2013.
  - Old Town Dock – Chandler O’Leary. Fabrication, installation, and dedication of ‘Droplets’, a series of 24 vignettes of Tacoma history
  - Foss Waterway Seaport – Bret Lyon. Presentation, fabrication, installation, and dedication of ‘Lot 411’, an indoor-outdoor sculpture
  - 66th Street Underpass (collaboration with Sound Transit) – Claudia Riedener, Kenji Stoll, and Christopher Jordan. Research and collaboration on a large-scale tile and aerosol paint mural
  - ‘A’ Street Passageway (collaboration with Sound Transit) – Diane Hansen. Design, presentation, fabrication, installation, and dedication of ‘Lock-On Tacoma’, an interactive personalized padlock project
  - Pacific Bridge Underpass (collaboration with Sound Transit) – James Sinding. Design and presentation of a pedestrian-scale public art project
  - Bay Terrace – Yuki Nakamura. Design and presentation of a series of three concrete art benches

- Public Art Maintenance
  - Chihuly Bridge of Glass – cleaning of Crystal Towers and replacing the lighting with an LED system, diagnostics on Venetian Wall
  - Sun King – Development of plans and bids collected to resite piece to park at Dock Street
  - Totem Pole – Tacoma Arts Commission reviewed structural issues and possible solutions and voted to brace the pole in place at Fireman’s Park and include interpretive signage about the history of the pole
  - Water Forest – Diagnostic work is underway to determine how best to prevent future damage to the piece
  - Children’s Bell - Development of plans to repair and reinstall the piece along Ruston Way
