GROUP SHORT TERM DISABILITY INSURANCE

Protect your income if you’re out on leave.

Your health insurance may help pay medical bills. Short Term Disability insurance pays you. It can replace part of your paycheck if you can’t work due to a qualifying disability.

Disability insurance may help protect your income if you’re unable to work.

Short Term Disability insurance can help pay benefits if you become disabled and can’t work for a short amount of time.

This coverage replaces a portion of your income when you can’t work because of a qualifying disability, including injury, physical disease, pregnancy or mental disorder.

You may receive weekly benefits that replace a specified percentage of your eligible earnings. Benefits begin after the benefit waiting period explained below.

You may also receive help returning to work if you need accommodations.

Even if you’re healthy now, it’s important to protect yourself and the people who count on your income. If you can’t work, Short Term Disability insurance may help you pay for ongoing expenses:

- Housing Costs
- Groceries
- Car Insurance
- Child Care

Additional Feature

Help With Returning To Work
- If a worksite modification would enable you to return to work, we can help your employer make approved modifications by covering some or all of the cost.
How Much Your Coverage Costs

Because this insurance is offered through City of Tacoma, you'll have access to competitive group rates that may be more affordable than those available through individual insurance. You'll also have the convenience of having your premium deducted directly from your paycheck.

Your monthly rate is $4.00 per employee per month.

Not being able to work also means not being able to earn a paycheck.
As you consider Short Term Disability insurance, think about the expenses you would need to cover if you became disabled:

- Housing costs
- Utilities
- Groceries
- Medical bills
- Car insurance
- Child care costs

To estimate your insurance needs, you'll need to consider your unique circumstances. Use our online calculator at standard.com/disability/needs.
Important Details
Here’s where you’ll find the nitty-gritty details about the plan.

Eligibility Requirements
To be eligible for coverage, you must be:

• An employee who holds a regular, project or probationary appointment in the city service, excluding commissioned firefighters or police officers (but not a Fire Chief or Police Chief), or an employee working at the Tacoma Public Library; and
• Employed and paid for services by the Employer on a full-time basis (regularly scheduled to work at least 20 hours per week);
• Actively at work at least 20 hours each week; and
• A citizen or resident of the United States or Canada

Temporary and seasonal employees, full-time members of the armed forces, leased employees and independent contractors are not eligible.

Employee Coverage Effective Date
To become insured, you must:

• Meet the eligibility requirements listed above
• Apply for coverage and agree to pay premium
• Be actively at work (able to perform all normal duties of your job) on the day before the scheduled effective date of insurance
• If you apply within the 30-day election period, coverage is effective the first day of the month following the 30-day initial enrollment period. If you apply after the 30-day election period, coverage is effective the date your application is received.

If you are not actively at work on the day before the scheduled effective date of insurance, your insurance will not become effective until the day after you complete one full day of active work as an eligible employee.

All late applications (applying 30 days or more after becoming eligible), and reinstatements are subject to an extended benefit waiting period. Employees eligible but not insured under the prior short term disability insurance plan are also subject to an extended benefit waiting period. Please contact your human resources representative or plan administrator for more information regarding the requirements that must be satisfied for your insurance to become effective.

Definition of Disability
You will be considered disabled if, as a result of physical disease, injury, pregnancy or mental disorder:

• You are unable to perform with reasonable continuity the material duties of your own occupation

You are not considered disabled merely because your right to perform your own occupation is restricted, including a restriction or loss of license.

Exclusions

• The loss of your professional or occupational license or certification
• An activity arising out of or in the course of any employment for wage or profit

Limitations
Short Term Disability benefits are not payable for any period when you are:

• Not under the ongoing care of a physician in the appropriate specialty, as determined by The Standard
• Confined for any reason in a penal or correctional institution
• Able to work and earn at least 20 percent of your predisability earnings in your own occupation but you elect not to
• Eligible to receive benefits for your disability under a workers’ compensation law or similar law
• Working for wage or profit for any employer, or when you are self-employed
When Your Benefits End
Your Short Term Disability benefits end automatically on the date any of the following occur:

- You are no longer disabled
- Your maximum benefit period ends
- Long term disability benefits become payable to you under a long term disability plan
- Benefits become payable under any other disability insurance plan which you become insured through employment during a period of temporary recovery
- You fail to provide proof of continued disability and entitlement to benefits
- You pass away
- You begin working for any employer

When Your Insurance Ends
Your insurance ends automatically when any of the following occur:

- The date the last period ends for which a premium was paid
- The last day of the calendar month in which your employment terminates
- The date the group policy terminates
- The date you cease to meet the eligibility requirements (insurance may continue for limited periods under certain circumstances)

Group Insurance Certificate
If you become insured you will receive a group insurance certificate containing a detailed description of the insurance coverage, including the definitions, exclusions, limitations, reductions and terminating events. The controlling provisions will be in the group policy. The information presented in this summary does not modify the group policy, certificate or the insurance coverage in any way.
