Question 1: In the RFP document, there is a Sample Services Contract, but there is also the link to City of Tacoma's Standard Terms and Conditions Can you please confirm which of the two documents should be the governing document regarding Terms and Conditions?

Answer 1: The contract in the Specification is a sample, ultimately the contract will incorporate the terms and conditions. Any conflicts of the submittal and the specification (minus the sample contract) would be ironed out within the contract discussion. Any differences of the specification and the submittal will be reflected in the scoring of the RFP.
