LNG Plant Special Education Session Postponed!

Regular Community Meeting May 19th
All Welcome!
7pm, Tacoma Police Substation
4731 Norpoint Way (corner of Northshore Parkway)
City and agency staff reports; Program: SEPA environmental review process (tent.), new NETNC Bylaws

Reminder: Community Clean-Up Day on June 11th – It’s All About the Volunteers!

Partnering with Community-Based Services and Solid Waste units in the City, NETNC is sponsoring the fifth-annual NE Tacoma community clean-up day on June 11th. As in past years, it will be at Meeker M.S.’s upper (east) parking lot; enter off Nassau Ave. NE. Hours will be 10am-1:45pm. All residents of single-family and duplex dwellings in NE Tacoma are eligible to come by, drop off discarded items, metal, appliances, tires, other rubbish, electronics, and re-usables – all for free. Saves a trip to the S. Mullen St. transfer station (off Center St.) and paying a fee. Last year 350 households (out of ~5300 eligible) dropped off waste stuff that filled 26 big, well-packed containers and in addition, dropped off two truckloads of re-usables at Goodwill trucks and a bunch of bikes in good to poor shape for clean-up, repair, and re-distribution. More below.

This event only works if we can get a solid cadre of volunteers to:
• Help unload participants’ vehicles
• Pick up stuff from older or infirm residents who need help getting their stuff there (there will likely be some coverage from Code Enforcement agents, too)
• Help check participants in (light duty)
• Manage food and water for the volunteers and other light duty tasks
• Other tasks that may arise.

We’ve got some volunteers signed up, but need more. Please come for the few hours to help this great community event succeed that cleans up our wonderful neighborhood!

Re-usables: Goodwill will take the re-usables and certain electronics (TVs, computers, especially) for cleaning up and re-selling or responsible recycling. Bicycles will be taken in whatever condition to be cleaned up, rehabilitated, or parted out to repair other bikes by the Marine View Presbyterian’s Bikes for Kids volunteers. They deliver working bikes to social services agencies around to distribute to kids in need. They’ll take unusable metal left over to metal dealers (like Calbag at the big curve on SR509) to gain income for parts.

This is the list of acceptable and non-acceptable materials from last year’s clean-up day postcard. A card will be sent to all eligible addresses a week or so before June 11th:

NE Tacoma Crime News
Crimereports.com shows numerous crimes during March and April to date: burglaries/breaking and entering, car thefts, thefts from vehicle (break-in), simple assaults (likely domestic), an aggravated assault (deadly weapon), and thefts, vandalism. Call 911 to report a suspicious activity sighting underway (strange car sitting in the streets or slow-cruising apparently checking out cars, houses, mailboxes) – a police patrol car may be available nearby to check out the vehicle, and the incident will be available to the CLO for analysis. The site is useful for seeing what kinds of things are going on, especially in your immediate neighborhood, but it tends to exaggerate some crime reports because of the simplicity of the description possibilities. For example, minor property theft sometimes gets reported as a burglary, which we would usually associate with a house burglary with more major property theft.

CLO Brandon Showalter reviews crime trends and key events at the monthly NETNC Community Meetings – come to hear his take on crime in NE Tacoma. Residents are invited to send reports of incidents to netnews98422@hotmail.com for inclusion here.

If you have questions about any police issue, please direct them specifically to the TPD Community Liaison Officer for our area, CLO Brandon Showalter, at 253.594.7951 or brandon.showalter@cityoftacoma.org.

LNG Plant Special Education Session Postponed to a Future Date

NETNC had been planning a special education session on the proposed Tideflats liquefied natural gas (LNG) plant. PSE is in the process of obtaining permits for the plant, which is intended to make LNG, a much cleaner-burning fuel, for TOTE Maritime Alaska to fuel its ships on the Anchorage run, and to provide peak-demand replenishment capacity for its pipeline system, as well as fuel for other transportation uses. Panel speakers were to address environmental and safety concerns and mitigations, as well as review details about the plant. The plant-knowledgeable speakers were unable to obtain permission to speak, though, because of an on-going permit appeal process. NETNC has postponed the session until an open discussion can take place.

One of the planned speakers, Tarika Powell of the Sightline Institute, has published two papers on LNG plants on Sightline’s website: www.sightline.org/author/tarikapowell/. Find the Final EIS, including a summary and brief introduction (“Cover Pages”) on the plant at www.cityoftacoma.org/government/city_departments/planning_and_development_services/planning_services/pse_proposed_tideflats_lng_facility.

Successful Parks Appreciation Day Events at Alderwood Park and Julia’s Gulch on April 23rd

Alderwood Park:
Thanks to a great bunch of more than 25 energetic volunteers from the LDS Dash Point Ward, Alderwood Park got its annual clean-up on Parks Appreciation Day, April 23rd. The volunteers spread chips on trails with help from Metro Park advisors and a few volunteers from NETNC and the neighborhood. Volunteers also trimmed bushes, removed invasives, and policed the grounds to help keep Alderwood useful for NE Tacomans. This is about volunteers – no one else is going to do the work!

NETNC provided morning refreshments and a lunch of hot dogs, hamburgers, chips, etc., with added donations from the Ward, and got lots of help from other volunteers cleaning up, making light work.

At Alderwood, lunchtime discussion among the volunteers and the MPT contact included observing that the trails in Alderwood are in pretty good shape overall, and although the Wildflower Garden still needs weeding, perhaps next year’s event could focus on a different park in the area that could use some TLC. We’ll pursue discussion in the meantime with Friends of Julia’s Gulch, the Dash Point Ward, and Metro Parks to figure out a good plan.

Julia’s Gulch:
Julia's Gulch, once a gravel pit, is gradually being transformed into a beautiful green space for neighbors to enjoy. It is especially lovely now as native plants and trees show their Spring greenery. A small crew of volunteers have worked diligently for the past six years on habitat restoration and on developing a loop trail. This dedicated crew were out on Parks Appreciation Day – they could have used more help, and that’s the reference to perhaps changing the NE Tacoma focus of PAD in the future. The trail system is a “work in progress”, suitable for walking, but rough in places. It starts at Viewpoint Park, splits at the large boulder where one has the choice of using the upper part of the loop trail or the lower part to explore the bottom of the Gulch and to admire the Big Leaf Maples with the licorice ferns growing on their trunks.

WHERE IS THIS GULCH? Julia's Gulch is on your right going up Norpoint Way just beyond Viewpoint Park and across the street from Pointe Woodworth. It's a tight curve there and two cars have already left the road and tumbled into the Gulch, in one case causing a death. There is also evidence of others missing the curve. This is a safety issue that needs to be explored further. It does not affect the safety of the Gulch itself.

Recently we became part of the Metro Parks Chip In! Program (Citizens Helping Improve Parks) and that partnership is proving to be worthwhile.

COME AND JOIN US! Work Parties are every second Saturday of the month from 9am until noon. Dress for the weather, wear sturdy boots....and bring your favorite tool....garden forks and shovels welcome.

Northshore Parkway Upgrades
Perhaps you’ve noticed the work on Northshore Parkway between Nassau Ave. and the Federal Way line. Two different projects are underway or complete. Paving has had extensive permanent patching to seal the roadway (and make it smoother) to keep water out of the roadbed, saving the roadway as a whole. At the intersection with Fairwood Blvd. and 42nd Ave. NE, the curb on the north side has a bulb-out, shortening the distance to walk across Northshore.

The next step for a crosswalk there is to install pedestrian-activated flashers where the crosswalk will go, with warning beacons ahead of the crosswalks, to calm the sometimes very fast traffic on both sides of the intersection. This work is currently planned for May.

Further down the road, re-paving that stretch altogether has been added to the City’s state-mandated 6-Year Transportation Improvement Plan. This work has been on NETNC’s Action Strategy list for a long time. Public Works has identified a grant that would cover much of the cost and is set to apply for it. If the grant is received, grinding and overlay paving (such as you’ve likely seen much of in Federal Way) will start. The grant process could take a while. And, the current pavement repair work would not be wasted – the basic patching would have to be done to prepare the roadbed for the repaving, anyway.
