Community Values

“I learned about local farmers markets. I'm a first time mom to a 14 month old and am looking to eat more local foods and healthier foods.”

“There is an organization that will do local farm deliveries from different farms in the area. And every year we love the screen printing!”

“I just moved here from the east coast. It was great to talk to people and see what is going on in the community.”

“The number of young people committed to a sustainable low carbon future.”
