

PAID SICK LEAVE:

Feel Well, Work Well

Since February 2016, Tacoma employers have been required to provide their employees with paid sick leave. Workers are eligible to earn one hour of paid sick leave for every forty hours worked. This leave can be used for temporary time off of work when a worker or their immediate family member has health or safety needs. Other uses include work or school closures ordered by public officials or for bereavement.

